Franco Corelli has long occupied a prominent place among the operatic firmament, both during his lifetime and even in death. We see in this book, for the first time, the man behind the voice. Author, Rene Seghers, has done a wonderful job getting the reader beyond the power and majesty of the voice and the mystique of tenorhood, to the man himself.

There were, to be sure, other great tenors at the Met during his reign, but there was only one Prince - Franco Corelli, "Mr. Sold Out," possessed of matinée-idol good looks, an athlete's physique and an unequalled heroic tenor voice as bright and as big as the sun, which was at the same time a breathtaking, lyrical instrument capable of a legendary high B-flat diminuendo, as Verdi demands but few deliver in "Celeste Aida."
